

April 7, 2011

Job Posting PRODUCTION MACHINIST / JOURNEYMAN

---

Summary:

Reporting to the Production Foreman this position will be responsible for the setup, operation and general improvement of CNC machinery within Westcoast Cylinders Inc.

The primary responsibilities are to support the production department through the production of parts, setting up CNC machinery, coordinating with material handling, fostering open communication and overall upkeep of the shop and equipment.

Responsibilities:

- Operation and Setup of CNC lathes and Milling centers.
  - Hitachi, Puma, Mazak, Fadal, Mitsui, Combi
- Organize tooling packages and tooling requirements for CNC's.
- Provide feedback and opportunities for improvement in the machining processes.
- Interpret engineering drawings as well as being able to provide engineering design feedback.
- Troubleshooting parts fit and function.
- Organizing daily work priorities.
- Interacting with the Production Foreman and Automation and Process Development Leader to communicate issues and requirements.

Qualifications:

- Journeyman ticket.
- Extensive experience with Fanuc controls
- Gibbs programming experience.
- Fixture and jaw design experience an asset.
- Self motivated with a positive attitude.
- Display solid problem solving skills.
- Display a willingness and aptitude for learning and gaining on the job experience.
- Ability to work within a fast paced work environment.
- Knowledge or experience with lean manufacturing concepts.

Salary & Benefits:

- Salary will be based on skills and experience.

WCI is always looking for talented individuals who thrive in challenging environments. If you feel that you are the right person for the job, please forward your resume to HR@westcoastcylinders.com. We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those that fit the profile will be contacted for interviews.